By Hugh Hartshorne

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for Training in Worship For ten or fifteen years, interest in children s worship has been steadily increasing. Pastors have more commonly introduced children s story sermons into the morning worship. Young people s societies have tried to find means for the adequate expression of the religious life of youth. They have prepared special collections of hymns to be used for this purpose. Denominational boards have also been printing Sunday-school hymnals, and in these increasing attention is being paid to orders of worship, to selections of Scripture, and to unison prayers. Individual church schools have been trying to transform their opening exercises into services of worship for children, and have developed special programs for their own use. For some years the Union School of Religion has been carrying on a scientific study of children s worship. The Religious Education Association has for three years had a Commission on Worship which has been working at the problem in various ways. Numerous articles have appeared in Religious Education and other magazines dealing with the words and...
