After college she started modelling, then in 1990 a friend asked her to cook a party for a friend of hers. The friend turned out to be Simon Cowell, who adored her food. Thinking catering was a good business and using her model friends to serve the food, Sophie set up the catering company Model Catering and has been catering for the film, music and property industries since. In March 2009 she set up the Crazy Baker bakery and has been delivering to restaurants and cafes throughout the west London area ever since. She lives in London with her husband and two sons. 264 pp. Englisch.
