

Obama Care: Dead on Arrival: A Prescription for Disaster (Paperback)

By Mark Davis MD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Obamacare: Dead on Arrival, A Prescription for Disaster discusses, in detail, the most horrific legislation concerning health care ever to emanate from the bowels of Washington. Encompassed in this work are many first hand accounts how people were hurt and even killed when services were rationed. On demand care will be a memory as this egregious legislation is fully implemented. Scarcities in services and pharmaceuticals will become the norm. As the system is overwhelmed by an influx of patients, limiting services will be the only way to manage the medical system. Dead on Arrival describes a full array of methodologies government will use to keep you from medical care that use to be routine. Costs will skyrocket each year as the system adjusts to the new bureaucracy being fashioned to manage it. Access, as promised by politicians, to the health provider of your choice is a myth. Instead a great bulk of the nation will be assigned to health centers and their various personnel who may not be up to the task of managing your care. The book goes...
